The limitations of service are defined in the listing Agreement.

EX BRK w/Limit Svc (Exclusive Brokerage aka Exclusive Agency with Limited Service): Allows the owner to sell the subject property. Owner is unrepresented and therefore is responsible for paying the commission to only the buyer's representative. Limitations of Service are defined in the listing agreement.

List Off Agency:

Obligations under which the owner/buyer will be represented:

- 1. Single Agency: Is a broker/associate who represents a buyer or seller but not both in the same transaction. Single Agency includes the following obligations to the client
 - a. Dealing Honestly and Fairly: (The broker/associate should not have any interests that are contrary to those of the client)
 - b. Loyalty: The broker/associate must be aware and avoid all occurrences that would breach the trust and loyalty of the client.
 - c. Confidentiality: A broker/associate cannot reveal to a third party private or personal info that may lessen the client's bargaining position.
 - d. Obedience: The broker/associate must act in good faith and abide by all the client's lawful instructions and or requests. If a principal should unlawfully instruct a buyer or seller, the broker/associate should inform the client about the unlawfulness of his/her request. If the client does not change the instruction it is advised to withdraw from his/her relationship.
 - e. Full Disclosure: the broker/associate must keep the client informed (at all times) of anything that could possibly affect the transaction or value of the property.
 - f. Accounting for all Funds: The broker/associate must be able to explain and track all funds accepted on behalf of their client.
 - g. Skill Care and Diligence in the Transaction: the broker/associate should be able to supply the client with answers or the resources to answer any issues that may arise during a transaction.
 - h. Presenting all Offers and Counteroffers: Offers/counteroffers must be presented in a timely manner (timely manner as defined by Real Estate is usually immediately unless otherwise directed by the client).

- 2. Non-Representation: Neither Buyer nor Seller are represented by a brokerage until they engage in an authorized brokerage i.e., transaction brokerage or single agency relationship. The duties of a no brokerage relationship include:
 - a. Dealing honestly and fairly
 - b. Disclosing all known facts that materially affect the value of the property not readily observable to the buyer.
 - c. Accounting for all funds entrusted to the licensee.

- 3. Transaction Broker: Is a broker/associate who provides limited representation to a buyer, seller or both. In a transaction brokerage relationship the buyer or seller is the "customer". Duties of a transaction broker are:
 - a. Dealing honestly and fairly
 - b. Accounting for all funds
 - c. Using skill, care and diligence
 - d. Disclosing all known facts that materially affect the value of residential property that are not readily observable by the buyer

- e. Presenting all offers/Counteroffers in a timely manner
- f. Limited Confidentiality, unless waived in writing by a third party.
- g. Anything else that is mutually agreed to by all parties involved in the transaction.

Property Type:

Description of subject property based on construction and physical design, regardless of legal description.

- 1. Single Family Detached: Free standing residential dwelling that does not have common walls.
- 2. Condo or Coop (Condominium or Cooperative):
 - a. Condominium: A group of housing units that share common walls, ceilings and floors. Typically, each individual owns the unit space and areas of common use. The land is typically owned in common by all unit Owners.
 - b. Coop (aka Cooperative): A group of housing units that share common walls, ceilings and floors. Ownership is not conveyed. In a co-op purchase the buyer becomes a shareholder in a corporation that owns the building. The buyer carries a leasehold interest in the subject unit.
- 3. Townhouse: A row of multi-story homes sharing common walls. Can be attached to other houses with one or both sides sharing common walls, depending on whether the unit is in a center or end position. Townhouses can be grouped together as small units, such as duplexes or triplexes, or they can be a part of a multi-townhouse complex. Ownership includes any areas of common use.
- 4. Villa: Single story residences that have at least one wall attached to a neighboring unit.
- 5. Mobile/Manufactured: A dwelling manufactured in a factory and designed to be transported and is semi permanently attached to the land. Mobile homes must be attached to real property and taxed as real property to be listed in the MLS system for sale.

Land Types:

The land Sub Type should correspond with the zoning for the vacant parcel. These options include Agricultural, Commercial, Dock, Equestrian, Industrial, and Residential.

Governing Body:

An entity created through an agreement to manage and maintain the development of homes in development and or subdivision:

- 1. Coop (aka Cooperative): is usually an apartment building or mobile home park that is owned by a corporation. The Shareholders or members of the corporation are entitled to lease one of the apartments / mobile home sites. The Proprietary lease is entered between the member and the corporation.
- 2. Condo (Condominium): This form of ownership can take almost any architectural form. The Declaration of Condominium sets forth the boundaries of a number of units and of the common elements of the association. Typically, a unit consists of the air space bounded by the surfaces of the walls, floor, and ceiling. The property other than the units is the common elements, which typically includes the actual real estate, the buildings themselves, all structural components, the grounds, and exterior areas. In addition to owning the air space that consists of a unit, each unit owner also owns a percentage of the common elements (as tenants in common with all other unit owners) according to the percentages set forth in the declaration.

3. *HOA (Home Owners Association): Each member owns his or her own Lot in the same way as a single family homeowner. However, the surrounding common areas are owned by the Association for the benefit of the homeowners. Many of these associations are multi-family housing buildings, such as townhouses, and the association performs exterior maintenance on the buildings. However, a homeowners' association can be a neighborhood association of single-family homes or of a mixed community

- V (Voluntary): Fees not required
- M (Mandatory): Fees are required
- N (None): Governing body does not exist fees are not applicable

HOA Fee/Month (Homeowners Association fee per): Indicates the monthly amount of the HOA fees

Application Fee: Total cost for association application

Membership Equity: Indicates whether membership is required or not.

Remarks:

Public Remarks: Remarks that are viewable by members of the public, as well as all users of the MLS system; entries are limited to 800 characters. Public fields do not allow any contact or showing information. Additional remarks containing a maximum of 10,000 characters can be added in the Supplemental Remarks.

Supplemental Remarks: An extension of the public remarks field which is viewable by members of the public, as well as all users of the MLS System, entries is limited to 1275 characters. Since this is also a public field, no contact or showing information may be included.

Broker Remarks: Remarks that are viewable by all users of the MLS system; entries are limited to 500 Characters. This is where contact information, showing instructions, contract instructions or bonus information may be placed.

Internal Broker Remarks: Remarks viewable only by authorized users affiliated with the List Office ID; entries are limited to 75 characters.

Seller Opt Out (Internet Display):

Note these 4 options are automatically NOT selected when entering a listing, however they can be added at any time in the Change Listing screen.

- Seller Directs Listing to be Excluded from Internet: Selecting this option indicates the seller does NOT want the listing to display anywhere outside of flexmls. This will automatically check the other three options and remove the listing from all internet display including IDX websites, Realtor.com, Zillow.com etc.

- Seller Directs Address to be Excluded from Internet: Selecting this option indicates the seller does NOT want the address to display outside of flexmls. This will “hide” the property address from all IDX sites.
- Seller Directs Listing to Not Be Used in AVMs on the Internet: Selecting this option indicates the seller does NOT authorize any automated estimate of the market value of the listing (or hyperlink to such estimate) to be displayed in immediate conjunction with the listing of this property on IDX sites. This will automatically remove the listing from Zillow.com because they specifically require AVMs.
- Seller Directs Listing to Not Allow Comments on Internet: Selecting this option indicates the seller does NOT authorize any third parties to write comments or reviews about the listing of the property on IDX websites.

Note these next 3 options are automatically selected when entering a listing, however can be unselected at any time.

- Show Address in VOWs: Selecting this option indicates the address will display on a VOW (Virtual Office Website) Participant’s website.
- Show Address on Realtor.com: Selecting this option indicates the address will display on a VOW (Virtual Office Website) Participant’s website.
- Show Address On IDX: Selecting this option indicates the address will display on all IDX sites.

- Y (Yes): Subject property is a “REO” property.
- N (No): Subject property is not an “REO” property.

Auction Properties:

Range Pricing (text box entry: Low price / High price) A Range amount the seller is willing to accept offers on. The higher amount is commonly known as the reserve price.

Absolute: An auction where the property is sold to the highest qualified bidder with no limiting conditions or amount. The seller may not bid personally or through an agent. Also known as an auction without reserve.

Published Reserve: The minimum price that a seller is willing to accept for a property to be sold at auction. Also known as the reserve price.

Auction with Reserve: An auction in which the seller or his agent reserves the right to accept or decline any and all bids. A minimum acceptable price may or may not be disclosed and the seller reserves the right to accept or decline any bid within a specified time.

Non Published Reserve: A method of sale utilized where confidential bids are submitted to be opened at a predetermined place and time. Not a true auction in that it does not allow for reaction from the competitive market place.

Subject to Sellers Confirmation: An auction in which the seller reserves the right to establish a reserve price, to accept or decline any and all bids or to withdraw the property at any time prior to the announcement of the completion of the sale by the auctioneer.

Online Yes/No: An auction conducted online and not on the premises of the property being sold.

Terms and Conditions Attachment: Specific Auction terms and conditions located in Documents section on flexmls. Terms and Conditions = The printed rules of the auction and certain aspects of the Purchase & Sale Agreement that are read and/or distributed to potential bidders prior to an auction sale.

List price: The required deposit to bid on property. Note List Price is the higher price on listing than the Range Price(lower) in the mls and not the deposit.

Market Value: The highest price in terms of money which a property will bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus.

Pre-Auction: Specified date and time property is available for prospective buyer viewing and audits. Also known as Open House or Inspection.

Live Auction Date: The effective date of auction in which the auctioneer will accept bids at the determined location.

Post Auction Period: If the property is not sold at auction, this is the timeframe to make an offer. This will be put to the seller for their decision.

Auction Contact Name: The person or entity to contact for details on the auction.

Auction Contact Phone: The phone number for the Auction Contact

Auction Date: The effective date of auction in which the auctioneer will accept bids online or in person.
